

ALPINE Physical Therapy

Alpine Physical Therapy wants to add a Pelvic Health Therapist to our group practice. Pelvic floor experience is not required, but you must be willing to be mentored and educated in complex pelvic floor therapy during your first year of employment. You will plan pelvic floor-specific rehabilitative programs to improve the quality of life for male, female, and pediatric patients suffering from incontinence, pregnancy-related issues, chronic pelvic pain, and other related conditions.

We are an outpatient clinic with a variety of skill sets and training and are seeking a therapist with a solid foundation in orthopedic physical therapy. We are currently one of the select clinics in Central Oregon that treat pelvic floor disorders for men, women, and children and are seeking another therapist to assist with that growing patient demographic.

Responsibilities:

- Develop and implement physical therapy programs that focus on pelvic health
- Work directly with patients to achieve maximum physical recovery
- Continually evaluate the progress of current treatment and communicate patient's progress
- Record and document patient care services in the EHR program
- Collaborate with other therapy team members to achieve well-rounded care

Qualifications:

- Previous experience in orthopedic physical therapy
- Ability to handle physical workload
- Ability to build rapport with patients
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills
- Strong leadership qualities
- Able to work independently with minimal supervision

The qualifying candidates must have a current Oregon PT license (or provide status), at least 1 year of experience in orthopedic physical therapy, and be capable of balancing a varied workload. Our company offers a comprehensive compensation/benefits package, including competitive salary, medical insurance, PTO, 401(k), clinic mentorship, and continuing education reimbursement.

Our small group works well together, keeping our team healthy and balanced. The practice is based in beautiful Bend, OR, and offers the outdoor enthusiast a multitude of year-round activities. You can learn more about us and our treatment philosophies at our website.

To apply for this position, send your resume to jobs@alpinephysicaltherapy.com. Include a cover letter explaining why you think you'd make a great addition to our team.
